

Blount Avenue Traffic Signal Upgrades Project

Project Description: This project is for the rebuild of the Chapman Highway/Henley Street and Blount Avenue traffic signal. Project will include new pole foundations, mast arm poles, pedestrian improvements, vehicle detection, emergency pre-emption detection, and other improvements of a similar nature. This signal upgrade will supplement the improvements from the Blount Avenue Streetscapes Project.

August 2019 – Before Construction

January 2020 –Construction Complete

Schedule:

Bid Opening: November 21, 2018

Notice to Proceed: March 13, 2019

Contract Completion Date: October 26, 2019

Current Contract Price: $ 315,500

Engineering Department January 2020 Status:

Project Designer: Fulghum, Macindoe, & Associates, Inc.

Construction Contractor: Davis H. Elliot Construction Co., Inc.

City of Knoxville Contact

Construction Engineer: Evan Hoffman (865) 215-6100

CITY OF KNOXVILLE

Indya Kincannon, Mayor

James R. Hagerman, PE
Director of Engineering